[Ivy Restaurant in Clayton, MO]

Hi. I'm Julie Keane. I'm the owner of Ivy Clayton. We're here in the heart of downtown Clayton on Meramec. We're a "from scratch" kitchen, so we make everything in house from our sourdough bread to all of our syrups that complement our coffees and our cocktails.

Over the years, I just thought Clayton needs a place that's super approachable, that's affordable enough for most people to enjoy on a regular basis, and, just a way to kind of bring the community together.

I am super proud how well we've integrated into the community. I feel like we've just become, you know, a regular part of so many people's day. I'm proud of the food that we serve, the quality that we give, and I'm proud to know the community.
